Chapter 2: नित्यं पिबामः सुभाषितरसम् (Nityam Pibamah Subhashitarasam)

Subject	Sanskrit (NCERT Class 7, Deepakam)
Chapter	2 — नित्यं पिबामः सुभाषितरसम् (Nityam Pibamah Subhashitarasam)
Total Questions	60 (Multiple Choice, single correct)
Maximum Marks	240
Suggested Time	90 minutes

Marking scheme: +4 for each correct answer · -1 for each wrong answer · 0 if unattempted.

Instructions: Each question has four options (A), (B), (C), (D); exactly one is correct. Questions test the meaning and grammar of the subhashitas. Watch the classic traps: count exactly FIVE 'va' qualities (विद्या, वपुस्, वाणी, वस्त्र, विनय) and exactly SIX faults (निद्रा, तन्द्रा, भयम्, क्रोधः, आलस्यम्, दीर्घसूत्रता); आलस्यम् (laziness) and दीर्घसूत्रता (procrastination) are DIFFERENT faults; in the purification verse the intellect (बुद्धिः) is cleaned by KNOWLEDGE (ज्ञानेन), not water; and सुभाषितम् is NEUTER (plural सुभाषितानि). Sanskrit is quoted in Devanagari. Do not write on this paper — mark answers on your answer sheet.

1. A सुभाषितम् is:

- (A) a long novel (B) a mountain
(C) an enemy (D) a wise, well-spoken saying

2. सुभाषितम् breaks into सु + भाषितम्, meaning:

- (A) 'bad' + 'spoken' (B) 'well' + 'spoken' = well-spoken (saying)
(C) 'six' + 'fault' (D) 'water' + 'drop'

3. The grammatical gender of सुभाषितम् is:

- (A) neuter (नपुंसकलिङ्ग), declining like ज्ञानम् (B) feminine
(C) masculine (D) it has no gender

4. The plural of सुभाषितम् is:

- (A) सुभाषितानि (B) सुभाषिताः
(C) सुभाषिता (D) सुभाषितम्

5. Saying सुभाषिताः for the plural is wrong because सुभाषितम् is:

- (A) feminine (B) a verb
(C) neuter, so its plural is सुभाषितानि (D) singular only

6. By how many 'va' (व) qualities is a person honoured?
(A) five (B) six
(C) three (D) ten
7. The five 'va' qualities are listed in the _____ case (the means of being honoured).
(A) nominative (B) instrumental
(C) accusative (D) vocative
8. Which list correctly names the five 'va' qualities?
(A) निद्रा, तन्द्रा, भयम्, क्रोधः, आलस्यम् (B) जल, सत्य, तपस्, ज्ञान, घट
(C) चैत्र, वैशाख, ज्येष्ठ, आषाढ, श्रावण
(D) विद्या, वपुस्, वाणी, वस्त्र, विनय (knowledge, body, speech, dress, humility)
9. All five honouring qualities share the feature that they:
(A) begin with the letter स (B) are all faults to give up
(C) are all rivers (D) begin with the letter व
10. विद्यया, one of the five va-qualities, means 'by _____'.
(A) sleep (B) fear
(C) knowledge (D) anger
11. वपुषा means 'by _____'.
(A) speech (B) dress
(C) body (a good physique) (D) humility
12. विनयेन means 'by _____'.
(A) knowledge (B) dress
(C) humility (D) speech
13. वस्त्रेण means 'by _____'.
(A) body (B) speech
(C) humility (D) dress / clothing
14. How many faults (दोषाः) does the verse say should be given up?
(A) five (B) two
(C) ten (D) six
15. The six faults are said to be given up by one who desires:
(A) sleep (B) enemies
(C) laziness (D) prosperity (भूतिम् इच्छता)
16. हातव्याः (in षड् दोषाः हातव्याः) means the faults are:
(A) to be collected (B) to be given up / abandoned
(C) to be praised (D) to be sold
17. Which list correctly names the six faults?

- (A) विद्या, वपुस्, वाणी, वस्त्र, विनय
(C) जल, सत्य, तपस्, ज्ञान

- (B) निद्रा, तन्द्रा, भयम्, क्रोधः, आलस्यम्, दीर्घसूत्रता
(D) हिमालयः, रत्नाकरः, घटः

18. निद्रा, one of the six faults, means:

- (A) knowledge (B) sleep
(C) humility (D) dress

19. क्रोधः means:

- (A) fear (B) sleep
(C) anger (D) humility

20. भयम् means:

- (A) anger (B) drowsiness
(C) fear (D) laziness

21. तन्द्रा means:

- (A) drowsiness (B) anger
(C) fear (D) procrastination

22. आलस्यम् and दीर्घसूत्रता are:

- (A) the same single fault (B) both meaning 'fear'
(C) two different faults - general laziness vs delaying specific tasks
(D) both meaning 'sleep'

23. दीर्घसूत्रता specifically means:

- (A) general laziness (B) procrastination (delaying tasks)
(C) long life (D) anger

24. आलस्यम् specifically means:

- (A) procrastination of specific tasks (B) laziness (general inactivity)
(C) fear (D) drowsiness

25. The chapter calls आलस्यम् (laziness) the great _____ of those who wish to achieve.

- (A) friend (B) teacher
(C) enemy (रिपुः) (D) drop

26. Counting निद्रा and तन्द्रा, or आलस्यम् and दीर्घसूत्रता, as one item each matters because the verse names exactly:

- (A) six distinct faults (B) five faults
(C) three faults (D) ten faults

27. In the purification verse, the body (गात्राणि) is purified by:

- (A) knowledge (B) truth
(C) water (जलेन) (D) austerity

28. The mind (मनः) is purified by:

(A) truth (सत्येन)

(B) water

(C) knowledge

(D) dress

29. The soul (आत्मा) is purified by:

(A) water

(B) austerity (तपसा)

(C) truth

(D) sleep

30. The intellect (बुद्धिः) is purified by:

(A) water

(B) knowledge (ज्ञानेन)

(C) truth

(D) austerity

31. बुद्धिः केन शुध्यति? The correct answer is:

(A) जलेन (by water)

(B) सत्येन (by truth)

(C) तपसा (by austerity)

(D) ज्ञानेन (by knowledge)

32. Mixing up the purification pairs (e.g. saying the intellect is cleaned by water) defeats the verse, which matches each part with its own means:

(A) water-intellect, truth-body, austerity-mind, knowledge-soul

(B) all parts by water

(C) all parts by knowledge

(D) water-body, truth-mind, austerity-soul, knowledge-intellect

33. The verse जलबिन्दुनिपातेन क्रमशः पूर्यते घटः means:

(A) the pot empties drop by drop

(B) the ocean dries up

(C) drop by falling drop, the pot gradually fills (D) the mountain crumbles

34. In that verse, what gradually fills?

(A) the pot (घटः)

(B) the ocean

(C) the sky

(D) the enemy

35. The 'drop by drop fills the pot' image is then extended to:

(A) विद्या (knowledge), धर्म and धनम् (wealth) (B) sleep, fear and anger

(C) oceans and mountains

(D) novels and songs

36. The lesson of जलबिन्दुनिपातेन is that knowledge and virtue are gained:

(A) all at once, instantly

(B) only by the wealthy

(C) without any effort

(D) gradually, little by little, through steady effort

37. क्रमशः in the verse means:

(A) all at once

(B) never

(C) gradually / step by step

(D) backwards

38. A student who studies a little every day, like a pot filling drop by drop, illustrates:

(A) दीर्घसूत्रता (procrastination)

(B) जलबिन्दुनिपातेन - steady accumulation

(C) आलस्यम् (laziness)

(D) भयम् (fear)

39. प्रेरकः means:

- (A) an enemy (B) one who inspires / an inspirer
(C) a pot (D) a fault

40. A teacher who inspires students to work hard is best called a:

- (A) रिपुः (B) घटः
(C) दोषः (D) प्रेरकः

41. दीर्घसूत्रता and दीर्घायुष् both begin with दीर्घ ('long'), but दीर्घसूत्रता means _____ while दीर्घायुष् means _____.

- (A) long life ... procrastination (B) laziness ... anger
(C) sleep ... fear
(D) procrastination ('long-thread-ness') ... long life

42. दीर्घायुष् ('long-lived') is best understood as:

- (A) a fault to give up (B) an enemy
(C) procrastination (D) a blessing of a long lifespan

43. That दीर्घसूत्रता and दीर्घायुष् share दीर्घ yet differ shows that, in compounds:

- (A) the same first word can give very different meanings, so read the whole compound
(B) the first word alone fixes the whole meaning
(C) compounds never differ in meaning (D) the second word never matters

44. रिपुः means:

- (A) enemy (B) friend
(C) pot (D) wise saying

45. The chapter calls laziness an inner _____ of one who wishes to achieve.

- (A) सुभाषितम् (saying) (B) घटः (pot)
(C) रिपुः (enemy) (D) विनय (humility)

46. सङ्गतिः means:

- (A) an enemy
(B) company / association (the people one keeps)
(C) procrastination (D) a pot

47. The subhashitas advise keeping good सङ्गतिः because:

- (A) company has no effect on anyone
(B) the company one keeps shapes one's character
(C) bad company is best (D) company means laziness

48. Choosing wise, virtuous companions over harmful ones reflects the value of good:

- (A) सङ्गतिः (company) (B) निद्रा (sleep)
(C) क्रोधः (anger) (D) दीर्घसूत्रता (procrastination)

49. In नरः पञ्चभिः वकारैः पूजितः, the words पञ्चभिः वकारैः are in the _____ case (the means).

- (A) nominative (B) genitive
(C) instrumental (D) vocative

50. The instrumental ending in जलेन ('by water') and ज्ञानेन ('by knowledge') signals the meaning:

- (A) 'to / for' (B) 'of'
(C) 'by / with' (the means) (D) 'O...!'

51. पञ्चभिः, the answer to कतिभिः ('by how many'), is the instrumental of:

- (A) पञ्चन् (five) (B) षष् (six)
(C) दश (ten) (D) त्रि (three)

52. Which case answers कतिभिः वकारैः ('by how many va-qualities')?

- (A) nominative singular (B) accusative plural
(C) genitive singular (D) instrumental plural (पञ्चभिः)

53. मनुष्याणाम् in 'आलस्यं ... महान् रिपुः' (laziness is the great enemy of men) is in the _____ case.

- (A) instrumental (B) genitive plural ('of men')
(C) accusative (D) vocative

54. Which pairing of word and meaning is CORRECT?

- (A) रिपुः = enemy (B) प्रेरकः = pot
(C) सङ्गतिः = sleep (D) घटः = knowledge

55. Which pairing of fault and meaning is CORRECT?

- (A) आलस्यम् = knowledge (B) दीर्घसूत्रता = procrastination
(C) निद्रा = humility (D) भयम् = anger

56. Which purification pairing is CORRECT?

- (A) बुद्धिः शुध्यति जलेन (by water) (B) गात्राणि शुध्यन्ति ज्ञानेन (body by knowledge)
(C) आत्मा शुध्यति सत्येन (soul by truth)
(D) बुद्धिः शुध्यति ज्ञानेन (intellect is purified by knowledge)

57. The overall theme of these subhashitas is:

- (A) practical wisdom for good character - qualities to gain, faults to shed, and steady effort
(B) a story about a fox (C) rules for cooking
(D) a list of kings

58. Taken together, the subhashitas teach that respect comes from _____ and prosperity from _____.

- (A) good qualities (the five va-words) ... giving up the six faults
(B) wealth alone ... sleeping more (C) fear ... anger
(D) laziness ... procrastination

59. The pot-filling image and the purification verse together stress the importance of:

- (A) instant results with no effort (B) laziness and delay
- (C) steady effort and the right means for each goal
- (D) fear and anger

60. A student claims: 'There are five faults to give up, and the intellect is purified by water.' The best correction is:

- (A) the student is fully correct (B) there are five faults, purified by truth
- (C) there are six faults, purified by water
- (D) there are six faults, and the intellect is purified by knowledge (ज्ञानेन)

Worked Solutions

- (D) सुभाषितम् is a wise / well-spoken saying. It is not a novel, a mountain, or an enemy.
- (B) सु ('well') + भाषितम् ('spoken') = a well-spoken saying. The other splits are wrong.
- (A) सुभाषितम् is neuter (ends in -अम्, declines like ज्ञानम्). Sanskrit gender is grammatical; this word is neuter, not feminine or masculine.
- (A) Being neuter, सुभाषितम् has the plural सुभाषितानि. सुभाषिताः would be a masculine plural; the others are singular or stem forms.
- (C) सुभाषितम् is neuter, so its plural is सुभाषितानि, not the masculine-looking सुभाषिताः. It is not feminine, a verb, or singular-only.
- (A) A person is honoured by five 'va' qualities (पञ्चभिः वकारैः). It is not six, three, or ten.
- (B) The qualities are the means of being honoured, so they take the instrumental (विद्यया, वपुषा, etc.). Not nominative, accusative, or vocative.

8. (D) The five va-qualities are knowledge, body, speech, dress and humility. The second list is the six faults, the third the purification means, and the fourth months.

9. (D) All five begin with व (विद्या, वपुस्, वाणी, वस्त्र, विनय). They do not start with स, are not faults, and are not rivers.

10. (C) विद्यया means 'by knowledge'. Sleep, fear and anger are among the faults, not the honouring qualities.

11. (C) वपुषा means 'by the body / good physique'. Speech is वाचा, dress वस्त्रेण, and humility विनयेन.

12. (C) विनयेन means 'by humility'. Knowledge is विद्यया, dress वस्त्रेण, and speech वाचा.

13. (D) वस्त्रेण means 'by dress / clothing'. Body is वपुषा, speech वाचा, and humility विनयेन.

14. (D) The verse names six faults (षड् दोषाः) to give up. It is not five, two, or ten.

15. (D) The faults are to be discarded by one who desires prosperity (भूतिम् इच्छता). Not by one desiring sleep, enemies, or laziness.

16. (B) हातव्याः means 'to be given up / abandoned'. It does not mean to collect, praise, or sell them.

17. (B) The six faults are sleep, drowsiness, fear, anger, laziness and procrastination. The second list is the five va-qualities, the third the purification means, and the fourth poetic names/objects.

18. (B) निद्रा means 'sleep'. Knowledge, humility and dress are honouring qualities, not faults.

19. (C) क्रोधः means 'anger'. Fear is भयम्, sleep निद्रा, and humility विनय.

20. (C) भयम् means 'fear'. Anger is क्रोधः, drowsiness तन्द्रा, and laziness आलस्यम्.

21. (A) तन्द्रा means 'drowsiness'. Anger is क्रोधः, fear भयम्, and procrastination दीर्घसूत्रता.

22. (C) They are two distinct faults: आलस्यम् is general laziness, दीर्घसूत्रता is procrastination (delaying specific tasks). They are not the same, nor mean fear or sleep.

23. (B) दीर्घसूत्रता ('long-thread-ness') is procrastination. General laziness is आलस्यम्, long life दीर्घायुषः, and anger क्रोधः.

24. (B) आलस्यम् is general laziness. Procrastination is दीर्घसूत्रता, fear भयम्, and drowsiness तन्द्रा.

- 25. (C) Laziness is framed as the great inner enemy (रिपुः) of those who would achieve. It is not a friend, teacher, or drop.
- 26. (A) The verse names exactly six distinct faults; merging the similar ones would miscount. It is not five, three, or ten.
- 27. (C) The body is purified by water (जलेन). Knowledge cleans the intellect, truth the mind, and austerity the soul.
- 28. (A) The mind is purified by truth (सत्येन). Water cleans the body, knowledge the intellect; dress is unrelated.
- 29. (B) The soul is purified by austerity (तपसा). Water cleans the body and truth the mind; sleep is a fault.
- 30. (B) The intellect is purified specifically by knowledge (ज्ञानेन), not by water, truth, or austerity (which clean other parts).
- 31. (D) बुद्धिः ज्ञानेन शुध्यति - the intellect is purified by knowledge. Water, truth and austerity clean the body, mind and soul respectively.
- 32. (D) The verse pairs water-body, truth-mind, austerity-soul and knowledge-intellect. The other options scramble the pairs or use one means for all.
- 33. (C) It means that with each falling water-drop the pot gradually fills. It is not about emptying, the ocean drying, or a mountain crumbling.
- 34. (A) The pot (घटः) gradually fills, drop by drop. Not the ocean, sky, or an enemy.
- 35. (A) The image is extended to knowledge, virtue (dharma) and wealth, which also grow gradually. Not to the faults, geography, or literature.
- 36. (D) Like a pot filling drop by drop, knowledge and virtue grow gradually through steady effort - not instantly, wealth-only, or effortlessly.
- 37. (C) क्रमशः means 'gradually / step by step'. It does not mean all at once, never, or backwards.
- 38. (B) Studying a little daily is steady accumulation, the जलबिन्दुनिपातेन ideal - the opposite of procrastination, laziness, or fear.
- 39. (B) प्रेरकः is 'one who inspires'. An enemy is रिपुः, a pot घटः, and a fault दोषः.
- 40. (D) An inspiring teacher is a प्रेरकः. रिपुः is an enemy, घटः a pot, and दोषः a fault.
- 41. (D) दीर्घसूत्रता is procrastination ('long-thread-ness') and दीर्घायुष् is 'long-lived' (long life). The other pairings are wrong.

42. (D) दीर्घायुष् means a long lifespan, a blessing - not a fault, an enemy, or procrastination (which is दीर्घसूत्रता).

43. (A) Sharing दीर्घ but differing shows the whole compound must be read; the first word alone does not fix the meaning, compounds do differ, and the second word matters.

44. (A) रिपुः means 'enemy'. A friend is मित्रम्, a pot घटः, and a wise saying सुभाषितम्.

45. (C) Laziness is called an inner enemy (रिपुः). It is not a saying, a pot, or humility.

46. (B) सङ्गतिः is 'company / association'. An enemy is रिपुः, procrastination दीर्घसूत्रता, and a pot घटः.

47. (B) Good company is valued because the company one keeps shapes one's character. Company does have effect, bad company is not best, and it is not laziness.

48. (A) Choosing good companions reflects the value of good सङ्गतिः (company). Sleep, anger and procrastination are faults, not virtues.

49. (C) They express the means of being honoured, so they are instrumental. Not nominative, genitive, or vocative.

50. (C) The instrumental means 'by / with'. 'To/for' is dative, 'of' genitive, and 'O...!' vocative.

51. (A) पञ्चभिः is the instrumental of पञ्चन् (five). Six is षष्, ten दश, and three त्रि.

52. (D) कतिभिः asks 'by how many', answered by the instrumental plural पञ्चभिः. Not nominative singular, accusative plural, or genitive singular.

53. (B) मनुष्याणाम् is genitive plural, 'of men' - whose enemy laziness is. Not instrumental, accusative, or vocative.

54. (A) रिपुः = enemy. प्रेरकः is an inspirer, सङ्गतिः is company, and घटः is a pot.

55. (B) दीर्घसूत्रता = procrastination. आलस्यम् is laziness, निद्रा sleep, and भयम् fear (anger is क्रोधः).

56. (D) बुद्धिः is purified by knowledge (ज्ञानेन). Water cleans the body, the soul is cleaned by austerity (not truth), and the body not by knowledge.

57. (A) The subhashitas give practical wisdom: qualities to gain, faults to shed, and steady effort. They are not a fox story, cooking rules, or a king-list.

58. (A) Respect comes from the five good qualities and prosperity from giving up the six faults. The other options name wealth, faults, or vices instead.

59. (C) Both verses stress steady effort and using the right means for each goal. They reject instant effortless results, laziness, and the faults.

60. (D) There are six faults, and the intellect is purified by knowledge (ज्ञानेन), not water. The other options keep one or both errors.
