Subject	Sanskrit (NCERT Class 7, Deepakam)
Chapter	11 — द्वीपेषु रम्यः द्वीपोऽण्डमानः (The Andaman Islands)
Total Questions	60 (Multiple Choice, single correct)
Maximum Marks	240
Suggested Time	90 minutes

Marking scheme: +4 for each correct answer · -1 for each wrong answer · 0 if unattempted.

Instructions: Each question has four options (A), (B), (C), (D); exactly one is correct. Questions test the islands' beauty, history and the Sanskrit vocabulary. Watch the classic traps: द्वीप = द्वि ('two') + अप् ('water') names an ISLAND (land surrounded by water), not a prison; कारागारम् (कारा + गार) is a PRISON, not a factory; कालापानी is the NAME of the Cellular Jail (symbolising exile over the seas), not a literal black river; सोढवान् is a PAST ACTIVE PARTICIPLE ('he bore'); and जनजाति means an indigenous TRIBAL community, not 'common people'. Sanskrit is quoted in Devanagari. Do not write on this paper — mark answers on your answer sheet.

Worked Solutions

- (D) The Andamans lie to the east, in the Bay of Bengal. Not to the west, north, or south of the mainland.
- (D) The chapter mentions the Andaman and Nicobar Islands together. The Maldives, Sri Lanka and Lakshadweep are elsewhere.
- (C) द्वीपोऽण्डमानः refers to the Andaman island(s). It is not a river, a cell, or a tribe.
- (B) The chapter shows the islands' natural beauty and solemn freedom-struggle history. Not deserts, snow, or only prisons.
- (B) It is a classroom dialogue touring the islands. It is not the fox fable, a war story, or a king-list.
- (B) The Andamans are an island territory of India. Not Britain, Sri Lanka, or China.
- (A) द्वीपः means 'an island'. A prison is कारागारम्, a tribe जनजातिः, and a coral reef प्रवालप्रस्तरः.

8. (C) द्वि ('two') + अप् ('water') = 'two-watered', i.e. surrounded by water (an island). The other splits are wrong.

9. (A) द्वीप is 'two-watered' because an island is land with water around it. Not two joined rivers, a sea-prison, or a peak.

10. (A) द्वीप names one piece of land surrounded by water. Not two lands, a pair of rivers, or two prisons.

11. (A) Peninsula ('almost-island') shares the land-amid-water idea. A mountain, desert and ocean do not.

12. (B) Their beauty includes white sand, coral reefs and coconut palms. Not snowy peaks, deserts, or factories.

13. (C) प्रवालप्रस्तरैः refers to coral reefs. It is not prison cells, palms, or mountain rocks.

14. (B) Coral reefs are part of the islands' natural beauty and marine life. Not the prison, the freedom struggle, or tribal laws.

15. (B) The beauty includes coral reefs and coconut palms. The prison, the suffering, and the tribes are other topics.

16. (B) The famous prison is the Cellular Jail. Not the Red Fort, a coral reef, or a coconut grove.

17. (A) कारागारम् means 'a prison'. A factory is कारखाना (Hindi), a library पुस्तकालयः, and an island द्वीपः.

18. (B) त्रितलात्मकम् means 'three-storied'. It is not single-roomed, coral-built, or undersea.

19. (D) The Cellular Jail was built by the British. Not the Mughals, Cholas, or Guptas.

20. (A) The Cellular Jail is also called कालापानी ('black waters'). The other words mean the ocean, the Himalaya, and a school.

21. (A) कालापानी is a name for the prison and islands, symbolising exile across the seas. It is not a literal river, a reef, or a drink.

22. (D) Literally 'black water' misses that कालापानी names the dreaded prison and the exile it meant. It is not a real sea, a tribe, or a school.

23. (A) 'Cellular' is an English loanword kept for the prison's design. It is not native Sanskrit, a tribe, or a coral.

24. (C) It is 'Cellular' because each prisoner was kept in a separate cell to prevent communication. Not one big hall, coral, or a shared room.

- 25. (C) Sanskrit keeps 'Cellular' because it has no native synonym for that cell-by-cell design. It can borrow words, 'Cellular' is not 'island', and the design is British.
- 26. (B) The design was meant to isolate prisoners from one another. Not to free them, beautify the jail, or protect reefs.
- 27. (B) Veer Savarkar is named. Bankim Chandra wrote Vande Mataram, Kalidasa was a poet, and Aryabhata a mathematician.
- 28. (C) He bore ten years (दश वर्षाणि) of suffering. Not ten days, one year, or a hundred years.
- 29. (A) कल्पनातीतं घोरं कष्टम् means terrible suffering beyond imagination. Not mild discomfort, a holiday, or a reward.
- 30. (D) He endured it for the Motherland's freedom. Not wealth, a position, or a degree.
- 31. (A) स्वातन्त्र्यवीरः means 'a hero of freedom'. Not a merchant, a foreign ruler, or a diver.
- 32. (B) Savarkar is honoured for sacrifice and endurance for the nation. Not comfort, titles, or fear.
- 33. (B) कारा ('cell') + गार ('house') = a prison. The other splits describe an island or कालापानी.
- 34. (D) कारखाना means a factory, distinct from कारागारम् (a prison). It is not a library or an island.
- 35. (C) In context, कारागारम् clearly means a prison. Not a school, factory, or temple.
- 36. (D) सोढवान् means 'he bore / endured'. It does not mean he built, sang, or counted.
- 37. (B) सोढवान् is a past active participle ('who bore'). It is not a future verb, an ordinal, or the gerund तीर्त्वा.
- 38. (A) सोढवान् comes from सद् ('to bear / endure'). Not count, sing, or drown.
- 39. (C) It means he bore the suffering for ten years. Not 'will bear', 'sang', or 'counted'.
- 40. (D) Such a person is one who सोढवान् (bore it). The others mean counted, sings, or drowned.
- 41. (A) The chapter names four indigenous tribes. Not two, ten, or none.
- 42. (C) The Sentinelese are an Andaman tribe named in the chapter. The Cholas, Mauryas and Parsis are not.
- 43. (A) The fourth is the Sentinelese. 'Nicobarese only', Cholas and Mughals are not in the list.

- 44. (D) The Sentinelese are one of the world's last uncontacted peoples, protected by Indian law. Not a city tribe, settlers, or coral.
- 45. (D) Their legal protection shows concern for indigenous peoples and their way of life. Not prisons, deforestation, or ending tribes.
- 46. (A) They are the islands' indigenous communities. Not British officials, tourists, or guards.
- 47. (C) जनजाति: means a tribal (indigenous) community. Not the common people, a prison, or a reef.
- 48. (C) जनजाति is an officially recognised indigenous group, not just any crowd, prisoners, or tourists.
- 49. (D) जनजाति precisely means an indigenous tribal community recognised in law - not a city's population, inmates, or a reef.
- 50. (D) The chapter treats the tribes with respect for their cultural and legal specificity. Not contempt, indifference, or fear.
- 51. (B) The islands are on the UNESCO World Heritage list. Not a languages, mountains, or ports list.
- 52. (C) UNESCO listing recognises their natural and cultural significance. Not factories, prisons only, or malls.
- 53. (D) कारागारम् = prison. द्वीप: is an island (not a tribe), सोढवान् is 'he bore' (not 'sang'), and जनजाति: is a tribal community (not a prison).
- 54. (C) The Cellular Jail is also called कालापानी. It is not a coral reef, कालापानी is not a school, and Andaman is not the Himalaya.
- 55. (C) सोढवान् is a past active participle and द्वीप = द्वि + अप् (island). The other options misname or misdefine these.
- 56. (D) द्वीप = 'two-watered' (island) and कारागार = 'cell-house' (prison). The other pairings are wrong.
- 57. (D) The theme is the beauty and freedom-struggle history of the Andaman Islands. Not the fox fable, banking, or the food cycle.
- 58. (C) It weaves geography, history and Sanskrit vocabulary (द्वीप, कारागार, सोढवान्, जनजाति). Not only maths, the dative, or Sun-names.
- 59. (B) The Cellular Jail (कालापानी) is remembered as the British prison where Savarkar bore ten years for freedom. It is not a reef, a village, or a mall.

60. (A) कालापानी names the Cellular Jail (exile across the seas), and जनजाति means an indigenous tribal community. The other options keep one or both errors.
